

to self or others.

B. Domestic Violence

A person arrested on a charge involving domestic violence shall not be released until twelve (12) hours has elapsed or until appearance in court, whichever is earlier. After twelve (12) hours, the person may post bail (1) pursuant to other sections of this Bail Order, and (2) if the person agrees in writing to initiate no contact with the victim. If the person charged refuses to sign such an agreement, he/she shall be held until brought to court.

C. Overweight Trucking Violations

The bail schedule as set out in this Order shall not apply to overweight trucking violations. Bail for such offenses shall be convened by the provisions of I.C. 9-20-1, et seq.

D. Double Bond

For any case where the person charged is on bail on a pending charge, the bail shall be twice the amount of the bail otherwise required by this Order.

E. Full Cash Bond

When any person proposes to post a full bond in cash or by certified check and the Clerk's Office is not open for business, the sheriff shall accept the money or certified check and issue a receipt therefore to the person making the payment in that person's name, or as they direct. Thereafter, as soon as is practicable, the sheriff shall deposit the money or certified check with the clerk.

F. Felony Arrests while on Probation or Parole

Pursuant to I.C. 35-33-8-6, all adult persons, with any felony arrest, who are on probation or parole, shall not be released on the normal bond schedule, but should be brought before the court at the earliest opportunity, and in no circumstance, should be held for longer than fifteen (15) days in jail without bond.

G. 10% Cash Bond

The clerk may not accept a 10% cash deposit in lieu of the bond otherwise required herein, except upon express written order of a judge. In the event such a bond is approved by the court, the clerk may retain as a service fee ten percent (10%) of the amount deposited when the bond is released at the conclusion of the case.

H. Property Bond

The clerk shall not accept a property bond in lieu of a surety bond otherwise required herein, except upon express written order of a judge. Upon approval of a judge, and pursuant to I.C. 35-33-8-3.2(a)(1)(c), a bond may be secured by real estate in the county, where thirty-three hundredths (0.33) of the true tax value less encumbrances is at least equal to the amount of the bail.

I. Amount of Bail on Warrant

If the bail is set at a probable cause hearing, the amount of bail set by the judge shall be endorsed upon the arrest warrant.

J. Release of Bond

No cash bond may be released by the clerk, except upon written order of a judge after judgment has been entered and any fines and costs imposed by the court have been paid and satisfied.

The Clerk of the Court is ORDERED to place a copy of this Order in the Record of Judgments and Orders of the Delaware Circuit Court.

All of Which is So Ordered, this 30th day of June, 2000.
